Respect for Nature

Nature comes first, humans are only visitors. Please stay on the signposted paths, do not leave any rubbish and please leash your dog and show respect to the nature. The numerous and often rare animal and plant species in the Allgäu will thank you. Please also take to summer campaign of the German Alpine Association on behaviour in natural settings. In addition to treating the animal and plant world with care, relaxing tours also depend upon interacting in a friendly way with all other mountain sports enthusiasts.
